Important Notes

(A) It is an offence under the Dutiable Commodities Ordinance (Cap. 109) to sell liquor without a licence. The person convicted of the offence is liable to a fine of $1,000,000 and imprisonment for 2 years. Furthermore, the Liquor Licensing Board takes a serious view on the activities of selling liquor without a licence. The application for a liquor licence can be jeopardised if the applicant or any staff of the establishment commits the offence. Therefore, the applicant should ensure that no liquor is sold on the premises at any stage prior to the issue of a liquor licence.

(B) According to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Ordinance (Cap. 297), the provisions relating to the non-disclosure of previous conviction records would not apply to proceedings of determining a person's suitability to be granted or to continue to hold any licence. Therefore, an applicant for liquor licence has to disclose information of all his previous conviction in his application.

(C) It is an offence under the Dutiable Commodities Ordinance (Cap. 109) to make any incomplete statement or declaration or furnish any incorrect information for the purpose of this Ordinance. Any person convicted of the offence is liable to a fine of $1,000,000 and imprisonment for 2 years.

(D) More importantly, the applicant must not offer any money or gift to Government officers. This is an offence in law and the offender is liable to prosecution.

PART A : General

(1) In accordance with the laws of Hong Kong, any person who intends to sell liquor at any premises for consumption on the premises must obtain a liquor licence before commencement of such business.

(2) If the supply of liquor is intended at any premises used by a club for the purpose of the club, a club liquor licence is required.

(3) The Liquor Licensing Board is the licensing authority for the issue of these two types of liquor licences.

(4) All applications should be made on standard forms obtainable, free of charge, from the Liquor Licensing Offices, at the addresses given in Annex I.

(5) For cases where an objection is lodged, applicants/licensees will be invited to appear before the Liquor Licensing Board to answer questions. They may appear before the Liquor Licensing Board personally or together with their legal representatives.

(6) Except for club liquor licences, applications for liquor licences will only be considered if the premises to which the applications relate are issued with general/marine restaurant licences or light refreshment restaurant licences or likely to be licensed by the Director of Food and Environmental Hygiene, unless otherwise exempted by the Liquor Licensing Board. A liquor licence will only be issued when the premises have also been issued with a full restaurant or a provisional restaurant licence. A liquor licence will only be valid if the premises remain licensed as a restaurant.

(7) For premises located in a mixed commercial/residential building or a residential building, applications for new issues or transfers of liquor licences will be considered on a case-by-case basis if the premises to which the applications relate do not have separate access to each entrance to the premises. Separate access to the premises means an independent means of access not directly leading to the residential units of the building.

(8) The use of the premises for supply or sale of liquor should not be in breach of the specified use as set out in the Occupation Permit issued by the Building Authority, or the conditions in the Government Land Lease.

(9) For premises located in a residential building or a mixed commercial/residential building, the Liquor Licensing Board may impose additional conditions to prohibit the supply, sale or drinking of liquor between 2300 hours and 0700 hours. In general, there is no restriction on the liquor-selling time at premises located in other areas, but the Liquor Licensing Board may impose time restriction based on individual circumstances.

(10) A liquor licensee is required to ensure that all liquor regulations and licensing conditions are strictly and fully complied with in the licensed premises. It is therefore necessary for an applicant to acquire adequate knowledge of the liquor regulations and licensing conditions. To this end, applicants are advised to attend seminars organised periodically by the Liquor Licensing Board to enhance their understanding of the issue. Applicants may also buy a copy each of the Dutiable Commodities Ordinance and the Dutiable Commodities (Liquor) Regulations (Cap. 109B) from the Publications Sales Unit at Room 402, Murray Building, Garden Road, Central, Hong Kong for reference. Applicants may visit the website of the Department of Justice at www.justice.gov.hk and download the legislation from the Bilingual Laws Information System.

(11) For enquiries concerning liquor licensing matters, the applicant may approach the respective Liquor Licensing Office, either in person or by telephone at the address and telephone number given in Annex I.
