

Tung Po Tor Monastery
Temporary Suspension of Liability (TSOL) and Licence Applications

The Private Columbaria Licensing Board has decided to continue to vet the aforementioned TSOL and Licence Applications

The Private Columbaria Licensing Board (PCLB) announced on 6 May 2021 the cessation of the vetting of the above TSOL and Licence applications having regard to the circumstances of the case.

Thereafter, the applicant has submitted a series of documents/information on the matters raised by the PCLB. Having considered the overall circumstances of the case and the documents/information submitted by the applicant after the above announcement, the PCLB has decided to continue, at this stage, to vet the aforementioned TSOL and Licence applications. Please note that at present, PCLB has not yet determined the above applications.

The applicant must take the necessary steps promptly to comply with the requirements stipulated under the Private Columbaria Ordinance as well as the requirements specified by the PCLB in respect of the TSOL application and the licence application submitted together with the TSOL application. The PCLB will continue to monitor the situation of the documents/information submitted by the applicant in complying with the aforesaid requirements. Depending on the situation of the case, the PCLB will arrange an open meeting to consider the case with a view to determining the applications.
