

PCLB has decided to continue to vet the exemption application and temporary suspension of liability application of “Bun Ha Tung Association”

The Private Columbaria Licensing Board (PCLB) held an opening meeting in respect of the above exemption application and temporary suspension of liability (TSOL) application on 26 August 2021. Having considered the overall circumstances of the case and the response of the applicant in the open meeting, PCLB decided to give the applicant a chance to supplement all the outstanding documents/information in respect of the TSOL application within 3 months, but the applicant must submit the documents/information as specified by PCLB by the expiry of the deadlines in each of the 3 months.

The above 3-month deadline has expired. In considering the documents /information submitted by the applicant, PCLB has decided at this stage to continue to vet the exemption application and TSOL application of “Bun Ha Tung Association”. At present, PCLB has not yet determined the above applications.

The applicant must take the necessary steps promptly to comply with the requirements stipulated under the Private Columbaria Ordinance as well as the requirements specified by PCLB in respect of the TSOL application and the exemption application submitted together with the TSOL application. PCLB will continue to monitor the situation of the documents/information submitted by the applicant subsequently in complying with the aforesaid requirements and whether the applicant has acted expeditiously to take the necessary steps to comply with the requirements for the exemption application in accordance with the “action plan” submitted. Depending on the situation of the case, PCLB will arrange an open meeting again to consider the case with a view to determining the applications.
