

The Private Columbaria Licensing Board decided to continue to process the applications of the “Ever Rest Temple” Private Columbarium

The Private Columbaria Licensing Board (PCLB) held an open meeting on 24 November 2022 to consider the applications for specified instrument (SI) in respect of the columbarium named “Ever Rest Temple”. Having considered the circumstances of the case, the responses and submissions of the applicant in the above open meeting and other relevant factors, the PCLB decided to give the applicant a final chance to submit revised proposed plans and other relevant documents/information which cover only 763 niches in the “Ever Rest Temple” on or before 31 December 2022. The applicant had submitted the above documents/information as required by the PCLB by 31 December 2022. The PCLB has decided to continue to process the whole set of SI applications of the “Ever Rest Temple” which cover only 763 niches.
