Based on the documents submitted by the applicant so far, the Private Columbaria Licensing Board (the Licensing Board) considers that the above exemption application is basically in compliance with the requirements for the exemption application, except for the requirements on the right to use the columbarium premises and the land-related requirements.

The Licensing Board has decided to give an approval-in-principle for the above exemption application, the “approval-in-principle for exemption application” is valid for one year (i.e. from 25 November 2022 to 24 November 2023). Within the one-year validity period of the “approval-in-principle for exemption application”, the applicant should take actions expeditiously to submit all necessary documents required for its applications for revising the validity period of the short term tenancy and land regularization and obtain District Lands Office/ Sha Tin’s approval, and then notify the Licensing Board in writing (c/o the Private Columbaria Affairs Office (PCAO)).

If the applicant has not complied with the above requirements and notified the Licensing Board (c/o PCAO) in writing of its compliance with those requirements within the one-year validity period of this “approval-in-principle for exemption application”, the Licensing Board will re-examine this exemption application.

Remarks on the Extension of Validity Period of Approval-in-principle for Shun Shin Chee Kit Yin Koon Limited's Exemption Application

Having considered the progress of the actions taken by the applicant to comply with the requirements for this exemption application and the comments offered by the concerned departments, the Licensing Board decided to extend the validity period of this "Approval in-principle" for 9 months (i.e. up to 24 August 2024). Applicant must expedite the required actions to comply with the requirements of this exemption application as soon as possible, and notify the Licensing Board (c/o the Private Columbaria Affairs Office (PCAO)) in writing. If the PCAO receives the applicant's submission and written notification and the confirmation reply from concerned departments on compliance of requirements, the PCAO will report it to the Licensing Board and submit the application to the Licensing Board for final determination. If the applicant still fails to comply with the requirements for this exemption application and notify the Licensing Board (c/o the PCAO) in writing by 24 August 2024, the Licensing Board will re-examine the exemption application.
