

Ching Chung Sian Yuan's Licence Application

“Approval-in-principle for Licence Application”

Based on the documents submitted by the applicant so far, the Private Columbaria Licensing Board (the Licensing Board) is of the view that this application for licence is basically in compliance with the application requirements for licence except that the applicant still needs to take further actions and submit revised documents related to building, land, environmental protection and proposed plans.

When the applicant has fulfilled all the requirements, the Private Columbaria Affairs Office (PCAO) will submit the licence application to the Licensing Board for determination. This “approval-in-principle for licence application” is valid for one year. If the applicant has not fulfilled all requirements and notified the Licensing Board (c/o PCAO) in writing of its compliance with those requirements within one year from the giving of this “approval-in-principle for licence application”, the Licensing Board will re-examine this licence application.

Remarks on Extension of Validity Period of Approval-in-principle for Ching Chung Sian Yuan's licence Application

Having considered the progress of the actions taken by the applicant to comply with the requirements for this licence application and the comments offered by the concerned departments, the Licensing Board decided to extend the validity period of this “Approval-in-principle for Licence Application” for 6 months (i.e. up to 24 May 2024). The applicant must expedite the required actions to comply with the requirements of this licence application as soon as possible, and notify the Licensing Board (c/o the PCAO) in writing. After the PCAO has received the applicant's written notification and the written confirmation from concerned departments on compliance of requirements, the PCAO will report it to the Licensing Board and submit the application to the Licensing Board for final determination. If the applicant still fails to comply with all the requirements for this licence application and notify the Licensing Board (c/o the PCAO) in writing by 24 May 2024, the Licensing Board will re-examine the licence application.

Having considered the progress of the actions taken by the applicant to comply with the requirements for this licence application and the comments offered by the concerned departments, the Licensing Board decided to extend the validity period of this “Approval-in-principle for Licence Application” for 10 months (i.e. up to 24 March 2025). The applicant must expedite the required actions to comply with the requirements of this licence application as soon as possible, and notify the Licensing Board (c/o the PCAO) in writing. After the PCAO has received the applicant’s written notification and the written confirmation from concerned departments on compliance of requirements, the PCAO will report it to the Licensing Board and submit the application to the Licensing Board for final determination. If the applicant still fails to comply with all the requirements for this licence application and notify the Licensing Board (c/o the PCAO) in writing by 24 March 2025, the Licensing Board will re-examine the licence application.